

REQUIREMENT FOR COMPULSORY HEALTH INSURANCE FOR STUDENTS AT UAMS

Trustee Shults moved and Trustee Miller seconded a motion authorizing the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences to continue the policy of requiring compulsory health insurance for students since it relates to the educational program of that institution, with the understanding that the University of Arkansas Medical Sciences Campus will continue to consider alternatives. The motion was adopted.

August 1, 1975