

TUITION REFUND POLICY FOR GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

When a graduate assistant resigns or is terminated from his/her assistantship appointment, the tuition or fee account which paid the fees for that assistant will receive a refund proportionate to the length of time remaining on the appointment during the current semester.

In addition, a graduate assistant who resigns or is terminated from his/her assistantship appointment, but who does not withdraw from the University, is required to pay the University tuition and fees for the remaining portion of the current semester.

January 18, 1985