- a. Admission requirements
- b. Curriculum and courses
- c. Degrees and requirements for degrees
- d. Calendar and schedules

The individual colleges, as dictated by their various accrediting agencies, retain the rights and responsibilities for formulation of curricula, new programs, and admission requirements. The Academic Senate may formulate specific recommendations relating to intercollege and intercampus programs. The Academic Senate does have the responsibility to guarantee, through review, deliberation, and legislative action, the purposes of the Assembly as stated in Article I of this document.

In addition, the Academic Senate shall have the authority to make recommendations to the Chancellor on any matter of general faculty or campus-wide concern, including such matters as research facilitation, appointment, promotion, tenure, dismissal, and non-reappointment.

The Academic Senate Council, shall exercise general legislative powers and conduct the general business of the Academic Senate. The Academic Senate Council shall submit a yearly written report of activities to the Academic Senate to be placed on reserve in the library.

In its passage through the House of Delegates, this elected body could forward the statement "with approval," "without action," or "without approval for the following reasons...". The House of Delegates can also draft its own proposal regarding the same subject matter. In all instances, however, the proposal from the originating group will be forwarded to the Chancellor.

- Section 4. All legislative actions of the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate shall be sent to the Chancellor. The Chancellor will respond in writing to such actions within two weeks following receipt of a written record of the legislative action. The Chancellor's response approving or disapproving the legislative action shall be returned to the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate. If, after consideration of the points of disapproval, the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate and the Chancellor are unable to reconcile their differences, the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate may vote to appeal for resolution of these differences. By a three-fifths (3/5) vote of those present and voting, provided that thirty percent (30%) of the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate is present, the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate may appeal those differences requiring resolution to the appropriate system-wide University authority and the President; such appeals shall be presented by the Chancellor (or the Chancellor's designee) and a representative elected by the Academic Senate Council or the Academic Senate.

There is no provision for proxy or cumulative voting. In the event that a quorum is not present, discussion of items on the agenda may occur, but voting must be done at the next meeting unless the majority of those present ask for a mail or electronic mail ballot. In such mail voting, a majority vote of at least twenty percent (20%) of the Academic Senate membership is necessary.

At any meeting, the House of Delegates shall take no final action on any business that is not on the agenda for that meeting.
- Section 4. The Secretary of the House of Delegates shall prepare and duplicate minutes of each meeting and send them to all members of the House of Delegates. In addition, a copy of these minutes shall be made publicly available in the UAMS Library.

- Section 6. Unless specified otherwise, matters placed before the House of Delegates for a vote shall be decided by a majority vote of those present and voting, provided a quorum is present. Voting shall ordinarily be by voice, (except House of Delegates elections) but in cases of doubt, any member may request a hand count vote. In House of Delegates meetings with a quorum present, other methods of voting may be required by request of twenty-five percent (25%) of members present. There is no provision for proxy voting.
