EMPLOYEE AND CONTRACTOR ETHICAL CONDUCT, CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND COMMITMENT

I. Purpose

It is the policy of the Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas to ensure that employees of the University of Arkansas System and persons or entities contracting with the Board of Trustees abide by laws applicable to them in performing their responsibilities and specifically that they conduct their activities in an ethical manner and in accordance with applicable law, regulations and University policies.

II. General Principles

A conflict of interest exists when financial, fiduciary, or other outside interest held by a University employee could improperly influence or reasonably appear to improperly influence that employee’s performance of duties, responsibilities, or professional role. Potential conflicts of interest must be promptly disclosed and appropriately addressed. Proper disclosure of reportable interests and activities, in accordance with each campus’ applicable policy, is necessary to identify and manage potential conflicts of interest and to ensure public trust in University decisions and contracting. Employees of the University of Arkansas System shall not use or attempt to use their positions to secure special privileges for themselves, their families or any enterprise in which they or an immediate family member hold any financial interest.¹

A conflict of commitment exists when a University employee’s time and effort given to outside activities and interests interferes or competes with that individual’s obligations and responsibilities to the University. External activities must not substantially interfere with University duties or assignments.

III. Conflict of Interest Policies

The President shall assure that each campus, division and each other unit of the University, and the University of Arkansas System Office, shall establish conflict of interest policies applicable to their respective employees. Employees at the campus, division or unit and to persons or entities contracting with the University through which are applicable to the campus, division or unit or the System Office.²

¹ For purposes of Section IV. of this policy, “immediate family member” means the employee’s spouse, parents, siblings, children and grandparents, per Ark. Code Ann. 19-11-701. For purposes of disclosure and management of conflict of interest generally, see Board of Trustees Policy 410.1.
² Conflicts of interest pertaining to patents, copyrights, inventions and university research are addressed more specifically in Board Policy 210.1.
The policies shall assure adequate and timely disclosure of actual and potential conflicts of interest and commitment, and a method for resolving such conflicts, and shall be coordinated with campus policies to implement Board of Trustees Policy 450.1 regarding outside employment.

Among other things, the policies shall specifically assure that employees in purchasing, billing, collections, financial aid offices, and any other offices otherwise engaged in contracting for expenditure or receipt of funds shall not: (a) accept gifts or gratuities from persons or entities soliciting, contracting with, or otherwise engaged in business with the University, and (b) shall not participate in any matter pertaining to a contract or subcontract, or potential contract or subcontract, with the employee, with an immediate family member of the employee, or with a business in which the employee acts as a manager, officer, director or partner, or in which the employee holds a financial interest, or is seeking prospective employment.

The policies shall also require that any conflict of interest-related requirements of federal research sponsors are met. Further, the policies shall also assure adequate disclosure and assessment of affiliations, contracts involving foreign entities, including notification to the Office of the General Counsel. The campus policies shall also assure adequate disclosure and assessment of affiliations, gifts, and contracts involving foreign sources, including notification of actual conflicts to the Office of the General Counsel of any suspected or actual violations of such policies that are established for this purpose. The term “foreign sources” includes a foreign government, a legal entity created solely under the laws of a foreign state, an individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States, and an agent for any of the foregoing. Examples of foreign activities subject to disclosure include, but are not limited to, research funded by a foreign entity, paid or unpaid service to a foreign entity, scientific collaborations with foreign persons/entities in connection with federally funded research, and participation in any foreign government talent recruitment program.

The President shall further assure that the policies are adopted that appropriately notify employees and persons or entities contracting with the University of this conflict of interest policy and policies adopted pursuant to it, provisions of the Ethics in Public Contracting Law and other applicable laws and rules dealing with conflict of interest and ethical conduct of public employees and contractors.
